HOLD SEMI-ANNUAL GATHERING

Dr. A. V. Kidder Delivers Lecture on Cliff Dwellers at Meeting of Andover Historical Society Held at South Church

Dr. Alfred V. Kidder of the Department of Archaeology was the speaker at the semi-annual meeting of the Andover Historical society held on Monday evening in the South Church vestry with nearly one hundred members present. His subject was "The Cliff Dwellers."

Dr. Kidder, who has spent much time in archaeological research in the Southwest, including territory in New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Utah, among the pueblos of Indians seldom if ever viewed by a white man was able to share with his hearers something of the fascination of his work. The Indian pueblos were the apartment houses of those days, one pueblo housing a whole village, sometimes of several thousand people. The houses were originally built close together for purposes of defence, often on a rise of ground in a commanding position, at other times under huge overhanging cliffs in remote river canyons. At the time of the Spanish conquest in 1540, there were probably thirty or forty thousand of these people, but at a period previous to that time there were many times that number. Ruins of villages, abandoned perhaps in the first century, now stand deserted, with implements of household use just as the dwellers left them, many centuries ago and the mystery of why these Indians left their homes or what became of them is still unsolved.

The pueblos of today are cheerful, kindly, hospitable, and industrious agricultural people. They raise corn, beans and chile peppers, which at the harvest season make a brilliant display of color when drying on the roofs of their adobe houses. A curious anomaly is found in the fact that the women build the houses and the men do the weaving. The men till the field and own the land; they also own the crops until they are harvested and carried to the pueblos, when they become the property of the women. The women are also the makers of the pottery which they form in interesting shapes, working entirely by hand, and decorate with water symbols, their prayers for rain.

The Navajo Indians have been much better handled by the government than have the Pueblos. Their reservations are adapted to their needs and they are a healthy, prosperous people with large flocks of goats and great numbers of horses in which they take pride. Horse-racing is a favorite amusement. They have a great many interesting superstitions and customs which were entertainingly described by Dr. Kidder.

The lecture was illustrated with pictures of the pueblos and their present inhabitants, the ancient ruins and interesting mummies, basketry and pottery unearthed by the work of the archaeologists together with the wagon trains and Ford motor cars which have carried the workers across this almost pathless country in their attempt to unravel the mysteries of these ancient civilizations.

LIGHT VOTE AT PRIMARIES

Only Ten Percent of Electorate Exercises Privilege of the Ballot—Gov. Cox Leads Coolidge Delegates

The vote in the presidential primaries Tuesday was very light, only a little over ten per cent of the voters exercising their right of suffrage. There was only one contest, General Charles H. Cox, candidate for delegate at large to the Democratic convention fighting the state. He is an avowed Smith delegate and he ran second to David I. Walsh. William H. Doyle alternate also placed.

Governor Cox led the Coolidge delegates and Congressman John Jacobs Rogers the alternate list. Only one Democrat voted in precinct 3.

The total vote was 403 with 182 in precinct 1, 26 in precinct 2 (Ballardvale); 94 in precinct 3 (Shawheen) and 101 in precinct 4 (Andover Hill).

The results:

REPUBLICAN

Delegates at large—Channing H. Cox, 360; Henry Cabot Lodge, 357; Frederick H. Gillett, 358; William M. Butler, 353; John H. Sherburne, 350; Anna C. Bird, 348; Jessie A. Hall, 342.

Alternate delegates at large—Pauline R. Thayer, 343; Elizabeth Putnam, 339; Charles H. Innes, 343; John Jacob Rogers, 351; Robert M. Stevens, 341; Mary B. Browne, 340; Spencer Borden, Jr., 343.

5th District delegates—Charles S. Smith, 350; Kimball G. Colby, 347.

5th District Alternates—Victor F. Jewett, 328; Charles P. Howard, 330.

DEMOCRATIC

Delegates at large, 8—David I. Walsh, 28; Charles H. Cox, 23; Joseph B. Ely, 22; John F. Doherty, 22; Arthur Lyman, 19; Helen A. MacDonald, 17; Susan W. Fitzgerald, 16; Mary E. Meehan, 14; Rose Herbert, 12.

Alternate delegates at large, 8—William A. O'Hearn, 22; Jeremiah J. Healey, 22; Arthur J. B. Cartier, 18; Edward A. Ginsburg, 18; William H. Doyle, 17; Mary H. Quincy, 16; Anne O'Keefe Heffernan, 17; Mary Bagalupo, 15.

5th District Delegates, 4—Humphrey O'Sullivan, 20; John W. Daly, 15; Andrew E. Barrett, 14; Patrick W. Cox, 12; Katherine F. McCarthy, 11; Bernard J. Golden, 9; Walter H. Wilcox, 9; James H. Gilbride, 6; Peter P. McMenimon, 4.

5th District Delegates, 4—John J. Mulaney, 21; Michael H. Hoar, 20.

Herbert Fraser gave a very interesting talk on "The Development of American Foreign Policy" before a group of members of the Andover League of Women Voters last Friday evening in Pynchard hall. This evening Mr. Fraser will speak on "The Monroe Doctrine."

ANNUAL MAY BREAKFAST

Young and Old Gather in Town Hall to Enjoy Morning Meal Served by Woman's Relief Corps

The April showers which bring May flowers continued to patter down on May-day morning but they didn't keep the people of Andover, men, women and children—particularly the children—from gathering at the Town hall as usual to partake of the abundant breakfast prepared by the women of Gen. William F. Bartlett Woman's Relief Corps.

After starting the day with a substantial meal consisting of fruit, beans, relishes, rolls, cold ham, doughnuts, cheese, pie and coffee, all served for the small sum of twenty-five cents, the guests patronized the tables where aprons, candy and flowers were displayed for sale.

Music was furnished during the meal by Malcolm Lundgren's orchestra.

The waitresses were: Abbot academy table—Mrs. Edward Cole, Mrs. I. R. Kimball, Violet Cole, Rose Ward, Jean Gardner, Charlotte White, Evelyn Steindl.

Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Eastman, Anna Robertson, Eleanor Downes, Evelyn Carter, Abbie Bartt, Jennie Thompson, Lily Harris. Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. Robert Crockett, Mrs. Edward Robie, Mrs. George Dutton, Mrs. Fred Blaisdell, Mrs. B. Frank Hatch, Mrs. Louis Dane, Dorothy Douglas, Marjorie West, Eleanor Keith, Madeline Rice.

Mrs. James Skea, Mrs. W. H. Faulkner, Mrs. William Bracewell, Mrs. Robert Lochhead, Ruth May, Helen Bickell, Irene Cole, Frances Farrill, Charlotte Collins.

Mrs. Clare W. Norton, Mrs. Edith Ricker, and Carolyn Dodge.

Those in charge of the various tables were: Supplies—Mrs. Franklin Valentine, Mrs. Charles Buchanan.

Kitchen—Mrs. Horace Eaton, Mrs. Edmund Dunwoody.

Pies—Miss Charlotte Hill, Mrs. Thomas Platt, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Leonard Saunders.

Andover's new Fraternal Building was formerly opened Friday night with more than 400 members of the six fraternal organizations present at the opening ceremonies.

In the unavoidable absence of James C. Souter, president of the Fraternal Association, William A. Allen of the board of trustees presided. He gave an extended resume of the work of the association, the financing of the purchase of the building, and other interesting items relating to future developments.

The entertainment was in charge of Clan Johnston, and under the successful direction of William Walker, pianist, and Alfred Robb P. C., a very original and clever minstrel show was presented.

The members of the Christy minstrel troupe were mainly ex-service men and among those who served through the world war were Ed Thorburn, James Robb, Alec Bertram, Henry Cairnie, John Drummond, John H. Gardon, David Valentine, Robert Caryll and Ed Fearn.

The show was original and entertaining and every participant was given an encore. The biggest hit of the evening was the "Excelsior" quartet; David Valentine, William McEay, Ed Fearn, and Charles Scobie. They were all good but David Valentine was one of the cleverest entertainers seen on the Andover minstrel stage for some time.

Other feature novelties were "Reveries" by George Fyffe; "It Ain't Gonna Rain no More" by Jack Drummond; "My Sweet Sarah Jane" by Ed Fearn with dance by Jack Garden; and the topical song by David B. Robb end man. Thomas Neil as "patrolman" kept the "directors" meeting as quiet as any human being possibly could. The jokes were hits on well-known members of the organizations.

The "Military" band was a feature and made its entrance as the show opened, "fearfully and wonderfully equipped and uniformed." The "players" were Alec Bertram, Ed Thorburn, G. B. Petrie, George Fyffe, Alfred Robb, David B. Robb.

Henry Cairnie of the British tank service, was interlocutor and kept the performers "in order" and the show moving smoothly. The greatest credit is due William Walker and Alfred Robb, the successful and original directors.

Since, moreover, there are slightly less than six and a half million farms in the United States it is evident that one in every forty had more or less disastrous experience with fire in these four years; or, to put it in another way, the number of loss claims for the whole country was about equal to the number of farms in the New England States. And this experience three-fourths of the afflicted farms need not have had, for the reason that carelessness and lack of knowledge of fire hazards, but principally the former, were chiefly responsible.

No Change in Policy Here!

Business policy just the same as political or national policy when founded along right lines and year after year, continuously and honestly adhered to, need never be changed.

The Family Shoe Store was established ten years ago with a policy of honest merchandise at a fair margin of profit.

This policy, in connection with efficient and courteous store service, strictly adhered to, has created a confidence in Andover people that is deeply appreciated.

Walk-Over, world standard shoes can be bought as low as $7. We believe this to be the lowest possible price for which quality shoes can be purchased.

MAJESTIC

"The Highwayman" a sparkling romantic comedy which launches its appeal largely to the feminine theatregoing contingent, will have its initial exhibition at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, Monday night when Joseph Schildkraut, brilliant young actor, opens an engagement with what is described as a distinguished company.

Mr. Schildkraut, well known and in high favor with local playgoers because of his striking performance of "Liliom" and other notable characters, will be seen in the title role.

"The Highwayman" is a vivacious spoken comedy of delightful flavor, wherein there is much that deals with love and plundering of woman's hearts, rather than worldly goods. The stunning Joseph is said to be an adept bandit where love is concerned. Nor does he neglect to demonstrate his ability in outwitting the landed gentry for the "one woman."

With this internationally famous star in the dominant role, surrounded by a cast of Metropolitan personnel, theatregoers are promised a thorough-going treat during this engagement.

In the cast which Lester Bryant, producing manager, has provided are Lotus Kobb, who was here in "The Green Goddess," John Westley, Jessie Royce Landis, Philip Lord, Corbett Morris, Hilda Graham, Theodore Westman, Jr., Gordon Pascall, N. R. Creagan and Lester Schaff.

Lajos Biro, the famous Hungarian, wrote the play and it was adapted by Gladys Unger, who wrote "The Business Widow" and others. It ran 300 nights in Vienna and just completed long and profitable runs in Chicago and Philadelphia.

Give a Pair of Shoes to Near East Relief

The Near East Relief invites the whole American Shoe Industry to cooperate in a drive for the relief of distressed populations, and to participate in the collection of a large shipment of worn shoes to be used by this organization in their great relief program in Armenia, Greece and Syria where the need for shoes by the orphans and refugees is almost beyond imagination.

Within a few weeks, a great ship-load of food, clothing and shoes will be forwarded by this worthy organization, to the Near East. The ship will be known as the "Jackie Coogan Ship" for Jackie himself will accompany it, and it is strictly up to the shoe merchants and the people of Massachusetts, the greatest of all shoe-producing states in the world, to see that Massachusetts contributes its share of shoes to the cargo of this ship.

Immediate action is necessary, and every town in the state should be able to donate at least five barrels of shoes in the next ten days, as they must be on the road May 15 to the warehouse of the Near East Relief at Brooklyn.

There must be a lot of shoe wardrobes in Andover, which need clearing out, and LET'S DO IT NOW. Any kind of shoes are acceptable, men's, women's, children's, — partly worn shoes, discarded shoes, any kind of a style and any size, in fact anything that is the least bit wearable in shoes. Dig them out and tie them up and donate them to this charitable drive.

In cooperation with the movement, The Family Shoe store has placed a barrel in front of their store, inviting the public to donate their worn shoes (tied in pairs) in aid of this worthy and urgent cause, and will ship them, transportation paid, to the Near East Relief on May 15.

How many pairs of shoes will Andover donate from their shoe wardrobes before May 15?

Let our slogan be "Ten barrels of shoes on the road by May 15."

P. A. ATHLETICS

Academy Records Broken at Track Meet

In the first full outdoor meet of the season in which the full number of events were contested the Andover track team won from the Harvard Freshmen, 80-45 last Saturday afternoon. The score would have been 81-45 if Paxton had not been disqualified in the high hurdle, but as it was, the visitors certainly received a jacking. The meet was featured by Charlie Borah's sprinting in the hundred, and Bill Healey's work in the javelin. In both these events the old Phillips Academy records went by the boards. What makes this meet all the more creditable to Andover is the fact that the Blue won without the aid of its star, Walter P. Bradley, and also without Dick Allen, its great quarter-mile.

100-yd. dash—Won by Borah, Andover; second, Glendinning, Andover; third, Miller, Harvard. Time: 9.4-5 secs. (New school record).

220-yd. dash—Won by Borah, Andover; second, Glendinning, Andover; third, Lundell, Harvard. Time: 22 secs.

440-yd. dash—Won by Sechrist, Harvard; second, Keep, Andover; third, Mallock, Harvard. Time: 54 secs.

880-yd. run—Won by Rindlaub, Andover; second, Jacobs, Harvard; third, Holmes, Andover. Time: 2 min. 4.4-5 secs.

1 mile run—Won by Haggerty, Harvard; second, Chute, Andover; third, Swede, Harvard. Time: 4m. 39.4-5 secs.

120-yd. high hurdles—Won by Wood, Andover; second, Burns, Harvard; Paxton, Andover (disqualified). Time: 16.3-5 secs.

220-yd. low hurdles—Won by Paxton, Andover; second, Wood, Andover; third, Macdonald, Harvard. Time: 25.4-5 secs.

High jump—Hollis, Harvard; Moyer, Harvard; and Edwards, Andover, tied for first, 5 ft. 4 in.

Broad jump—Won by Glendinning, Andover, 21 ft. 1 in.; second, Clark, Andover, 20 ft.; third, Sechrist, Harvard, 19 ft. 9-14 in.

Pole vault—Won by Alexander, Andover, 10 ft.; second, Vail, Andover, 9 ft. 6 in.; third, Marsh, Andover, 9 ft. 3 in.

Shot-put—Won by Healey, Andover, 44 ft. 5-12 in.; second, Kilgour, Harvard, 41 ft. 1 in.; third, Lundell, Harvard, 40 ft.

Free Church Notes

It has been decided to postpone the celebration of the Lord's Supper until the 18th of May, when the painting of the Church auditorium will be completed. Meanwhile the services will be held in the Parish House.

Miss Mary E. Carter, Mrs. Stanley V. Lane, Mrs. Dana W. Clark, Mrs. Harry Ramsdell and Mrs. David S. Lindsay represented the Free church at the meeting of Andover Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers held at the Pawtucket Congregational Church in Lowell last Tuesday.

Police Court Notes

Paul Lamonia of Turnpike street, North Andover, was before Judge Stone in police court, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. He was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and serve ten days in jail. He was arrested by State Officer T. J. Sullivan on Highland road after running into a stone wall.

Arthur Patriandi of Peabody paid a fine of $10 for operating an auto without a license. John E. McCarthy of 43 Avon street, Peabody, was fined $25 for allowing a person to operate an auto knowing that he had no license.

Frank Ward was fined $25 and thirty days in the house of correction for operating while under the influence of liquor. He is being held in $300 bonds.

Girls' Friendly Society Holds Sale and Entertainment

The Girls' Friendly society of Christ church held its annual sale of fancy articles, cake, pies and candy in the parish house Monday afternoon. Tea was served during the sale with Mrs. Andrew Lawrie and Mrs. Katherine Pinckney pouring.

The fancy-goods table was in charge of Mrs. Fred H. Eaton; the candy table in charge of Mrs. Walter E. Howe and the food table was in charge of Miss Margaret McTernan.

In the evening an entertainment program was given opening with a piano duet by Mrs. W. Dudley Yates and Miss Phyllis Yates. This was followed by songs by Miss Marjorie Bissett and Miss Mildred Frost. Walter E. Howe was the accompanist for Miss Bissett and Mrs. Goodwillie for Miss Frost.

A short sketch, "Blackberrying," directed by Mrs. Arthur Bilas, Jr., was given with the following cast:

Mrs. Granger, Miss Eva Mehlman; Phyllis Granger, Miss Doris Hilton; Mrs. Hathaway, Miss Helen Smith; Miss Waist, Miss Edith Wrigley; Mrs. Whitmore, Ruth A. Gates.

St. Margaret's Guild Holds Social Evening

A pleasant social party was enjoyed at the home of Miss Mary Cole on Abbot street Tuesday evening. The members of St. Margaret's Guild and a number of young men made merry during the evening. Games were played and several vocal and piano solos were given. The home was decorated for the occasion with pink and blue predominating. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses.

Among those present were: Shirley McKee, Sadie McCoubrie, Hilda Harding, Emma Daniels, Eleanor Flint, Mary Cole, George Hegarty, Reginald Whitcomb, Walden Bassett, Ted Platt, William Thompson and Gaius Walls.

Phillips Academy Debating Classes to Be Held Saturday Evening

On Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the Peabody House the twenty-eighth competition for the Robinson prize in debating will be held under the direction of the Philomathean Debating society of Phillips Academy. This debate, held annually between the Philomathean Society and the School, brings out the best material in the school and is by far the best of such events held during the year.

The question for debate is: Resolved: That the United States should enter the World Court on the terms proposed by President Harding. The team representing the Philomathean Society, which is the challenger in the debate, will have the affirmative. The members of this team are: William Stephens, D. M. Wiley, and Alan Lauchheimer. The School team composed of Winlock Miller, Jr., J. P. Grant, and A. D. Schulte will debate for the negative. These teams are composed of men who have formerly distinguished themselves on high school debating teams, in state public speaking competitions, and in the Means and Draper Prize Speaking Contests at the Academy and the importance of the question need not be commented on, for this is one of the all-important questions before the world's statesmen today.

The public is cordially invited to attend this debate. Most of the people of Andover have at some time attended one of the Prize Speaking contests at the Academy and know their high quality. It is expected that this debate will be exceptionally interesting both in the matter of delivery and arguments brought to bear on the question.

Telephone Operators Dance

The Andover Telephone operators held their second annual dance last Friday evening in the town hall. There were about two hundred in attendance and dancing was enjoyed until twelve o'clock, music being furnished by Barsley's ten-piece orchestra.

The hall was prettily decorated with flags and bunting and a large number of balloons hung from the center of the ceiling. Palms decorated the stage where the musicians sat.

Several specialty dances were given by the Malcolm children of Lawrence, and Miss Ruth Watson.

The members of the committee in charge of the dance were Miss Katherine Donovan, Miss Eunice Sellers and Miss Ruth Watson.

Collins of Whitman, a little cousin, celebrated his birthday, all of which occurred during the week. Laurence and Genevieve were five years old, and Billie was three. The little folks invited a large number of friends from Lawrence as well as Andover and all had a jolly time during the afternoon playing games. Refreshments were served; three birthday cakes were features of the occasion.

The rooms were prettily decorated in yellow for Easter time, and little yellow chickens were used as favors. The young hosts received many pretty gifts.

To Hold Charity Bridge at Shawheen Manor

Two charity bridge parties will be held at Shawheen Manor; the first on Tuesday May 6, and the second on Tuesday, May 13. Besides lending assistance to a worthy cause, those who attend will enjoy a pleasant social occasion.

F. Abbot Goodhue Believes German Loan Feasible

The following clipping is taken from a recent issue of the Wall Street Journal. Mr. Goodhue is the son of Mrs. Francis A. Goodhue of School street.

That a German loan here is feasible and would have every promise of success, provided the Dawes plan were generally adopted, is the opinion of F. Abbot Goodhue, president of the International Acceptance Bank. Adoption of the plan would be such a big thing in the affairs of the world and would have such far reaching significance that the bankers would readily support such a loan.

"The refreshing thing about the Dawes report," said Mr. Goodhue, "is that it is a business man's report and free in every way from political influences. The more one studies it the more one is impressed at the thoroughness with which the committee went into the situation and how conscientiously it sought to give the world the much desired solution of the reparations tangle. In my opinion, as time goes on, it will be discussed what a great document it is. Already one can see a favorable reaction in respect to German opinion.

"I have seen many criticisms here because the plan did not fix the amount Germany has to pay. But this was entirely outside the province of the committee. We must remember that the French gave their consent to the investigation on the understanding that there should be no reference to the total German reparations. It would have been a great mistake if the committee touched upon that. All it was asked to do was to find a way Germany could pay and how much she can pay from year to year. This it has done. The number of years Germany continues to pay will ultimately determine the total.

"Another excellent feature about the Dawes plan is determining how much Germany can pay by a system of 'prosperity indices.' This may be a difficult thing to work out, however."

Asked whether there would be any difficulty about placing the proposed German loans in this market Mr. Goodhue said, "If all depends upon whether the plan is adopted or not. If it is rejected or proves unworkable the effect will be disastrous in my opinion. Then no loan could possibly be floated.

"But if the plan is adopted and a disposition is shown all around to work it out—think what that will mean. It will mean the financial reconstruction of Europe. It will mean the salvation of Germany and the end of this distrust and unsettlement. It would, French and German governments, to say nothing of the support of American bankers.

"Under those conditions, certainly a German loan could be floated here."

Clans to Hold Past Chiefs' Night

Clan Johnson 185, O. S. C., will hold another big night in the new fraternal building this evening when past chief and charter members' night will be observed. The plans are in the hands of the past chiefs and the chair will be occupied by Edward Nicoll with William Hodge, chaplain, both n-w of Clan Landay, Cambridge. William Morrissey and George Baxter, charter members, will be officers for the event.

A musical program has been arranged and selections will be rendered by the Clan quartet, Robert Cargill, John H. Garden, Alec Bertram and Alfred Robb with William Walker at the piano. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Walker on Committee for Bryn Mawr May Day Celebration

Miss Helen Walker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Walker of Main street, and a member of the Senior class at Bryn Mawr college is assistant chairman of the business committee which is making arrangements for the sixth quadrennial May Day celebration to be given on the college campus on May 9 and 10.

All the students are devoting every spare moment to preparations for the two-day revels. Six hundred students and alumnae will take part in the celebration, every one in costume. Gorgeous decorations of the college grounds are in course of preparation. Special trains from New York, Washington, Boston, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh will be run direct to Bryn Mawr station.

All attendance records are expected to be broken this year, according to present reservation figures. Many alumnae from this section have arranged to spend one or both days on the college campus to meet their former classmates and to enjoy the picturesque frolics of the students. Miss Margaret Wylie, of Washington, D. C., will be crowned Queen of the May.

Has Purchased Estate on Carter's Hill

Myron E. Clark, president of the Tyler Rubber company has purchased the estate on Chestnut street formerly owned by Dr. J. M. Birdall. The house was built by Charles L. Carter and is known to old Andover residents as the Carter place. It is situated between Highland road and Chestnut streets and has one of the finest situations in Andover, commanding a view of Andover, Lawrence and the mountains to the north.

Dr. Kidder Lectures at Legion Meeting

At the social meeting of the Legion held on Tuesday evening with members of the auxiliary as their guests, Dr. Alfred V. Kidder gave an illustrated lecture on "The Child Dwellers."

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING

The speaker closed with the plea that his hearers would lend a sympathetic ear and also their influence in behalf of these ancient peoples when plans for their welfare were presented to the powers that be. Professor Warren K. Moorehead is working hard in the Indian service and expects that the time will come when their interests will not be submerged by the oil interests.

President Charles E. Abbott presided at the meeting and in his opening remarks alluded briefly but feelingly to the loss which the society had sustained in the loss by death of its vice president, Nathaniel E. Bartlett. A committee to draw up suitable resolutions on the occasion was appointed as follows: George T. Eaton, Mrs. B. R. Bradley, and John V. Holt.

Dr. Abbott spoke of the splendid gain in membership made this year by the society and of its various activities which had added substantially to the fund for a permanent home for the society. A Colonial costume ball to be given in February is one of the events which will mark the coming year.

At the close of the lecture, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the men of the executive committee.

The rooms of the society on Main street will be open every Saturday afternoon in May and June between the hours of two and five and it is hoped that everyone, whether members of the society or not, will take the opportunity to become more familiar with the treasures of the society.

Andover Club Win Again

The Andover club won the second tournament with the Square and Compass club last Friday night in the latter's rooms. The winners included several members of the Square and Compass club in their team and made competition keener. Frank Hatch of the Andover club won his cowboy and pool games, and was the only double winner.

The Square and Compass club bowlers were in fine form and took three points. President Roy E. Hardy was high with 329 and a single of 135.

Refreshments were served by Caterer Rhodes at the conclusion of the tournament. The summary:

Do You Want to Have Corns, Bunions and Flat Feet?

Does the shape of your shoes conform to the shape of your foot? Or do you prefer to suffer the agonies of corns, bunions, flat feet?

The Chinese are looked down upon as uncivilized because they squeeze their feet into very small shoes. Yet many women in America, for the sake of fashion, buy shoes which are much too small and narrow. The widest part of the foot is across the level of the great toe joint. The inner line of the normal foot hardly curves at all, so that when the shoes are placed side by side the tips of the toes should be little, if at all, separated. Pointed shoes put a strain on the transverse arch and help make bunions.

If you must be in style why not choose the sport shoe, which is cut along fairly sensible lines?

Much credit should be given to those who planned and handled the preparation and serving of the May breakfast this year. In spite of the weather the attendance equalled that of former years and the service was excellent. It was a real pleasure to be able to sit down and be served promptly with a hot, appetizing breakfast and the women of the corps have every reason to be proud of their record this year. It ought to be said in passing, that the music which was furnished added much to the pleasure of the meal.

A country-wide movement has been started recently to the end that the flag be displayed on all public buildings on every day in the year. It is a good thing. We see too little of our flag and while the little that we do see always strikes a responsive chord in the heart of every true American, it would do many of us a lot of good to have a more constant reminder that we are a part of a great nation, bound together for a common purpose. The Townsman hopes that before this practice becomes country-wide, Andover will in some way, again be able to hoist a flag over her town house.

Last Tuesday saw what will probably be the smallest vote ever cast at a state election. Certainly Andover's vote was the smallest which has ever been cast for this town. The Townsman is frankly disappointed that even though the rest of the state shirked its responsibilities in the matter of voting for party convention representatives, Andover did so poorly along with it. Those who did not cast a ballot, and this statement applies to all but 400 of the town's 3700 registered voters, have no longer any right to remark about the inefficiency and graft of party politics. They may consider themselves directly responsible—for whatever inefficiency and graft exists today. Party primaries were introduced into this state as a means of giving the people of the party a better opportunity to choose their own candidates than they had under the old state convention system. The people howled until they got it. Like a lot of other things, now that they have it, they appear to have forgotten its existence.

The passing of George Chandler takes from Andover another of the old Civil War veterans, a man who had endeared himself to many in the town during his life of service. The Townsman joins with his many friends in offering its sympathy to the members of his family. Until he was retired from government service, three years ago, he spent his whole life in Andover with the exception of the time he served in the Union army and one year spent near Chicago, and through all that time the nature of the man was such that he made a host of real friends.

Square and Compass Minstrel Show

The Minstrel Show under the auspices of the Andover Square and Compass club which will be held in the Town hall on next Thursday and Friday nights should attract large audiences each evening. Work has developed a fine male chorus and the end men have been selected with a view to making the show full of life and snap.

George A. Higgins will serve as inter-locutor and his long experience in minstrelsy is assurance that this part will be well taken care of.

Several fine specialties have been secured and on the whole the show will be the best of the season.

Girls of St. Catherine's Guild to Hold Sale

Remember the entertainment and sale by the girls of St. Catherine's Guild at the parish house of Christ Church on Tuesday evening, May 13. Housekeepers will find articles for kitchen and pantry which are both pretty and useful. Since little girls like to sew dainty material, the babies have not been forgotten. Work, new in type and design, will be on sale.

For several years the members of the Guild have given a play, but this season the entertainment is to be a musical cantata. Mrs. Frank Paige has charge and is training the children. Tickets, at twenty-five cents, may be obtained from the girls of the Guild.

Take Part in Dance Recital in Lawrence

Mrs. S. N. Bailey, Jr., who for several seasons has conducted a dancing class in Andover presented her pupils from Andover, Lawrence and Methuen in a dance recital held Monday evening in Nevins Hall, Methuen.

Among those who took part in the spring dance were Mary Ella Southworth, Marjorie Watson, Claire O'Connell, Betty Southworth, Grace Hadley, Dorothy Wade, Vivian Southworth, Phyllis Eaton, Dorothy Welch, Elaine Burr.

Marjorie Watson took part in the group of five nature studies, her dance being called "Daisy Chains." Claire O'Connell was also a solo dancer as "A Debutante of Tomorrow."

C. D. of A. Shows Increased Membership

Court St. Monica, C. D. of A., held a large initiation meeting Sunday afternoon, forty new candidates being admitted to the local court. The membership is now well over two hundred, a remarkable growth for the organization in less than a year and six months.

The initiation was witnessed by members from Lawrence, North Andover, Bradford and Haverhill and among the prominent officers present were State Regent Mrs. John Salmon; District Deputy Miss Nellie Quigley; Mrs. John Linehan, Regent of Court Sacred Heart of Bradford and Miss M. Chapman, Regent of Court Haverhill.

Following the meeting A. P. Weigel of Lawrence served an excellent lunch to the members.

Faculty Recital at Abbot Academy

The last faculty recital by the music department of Abbot Academy, will be given Saturday afternoon in Davis hall, at two-thirty. Though this is to be the tenth recital given by the faculty, it will be the first in which all the members will be included. The program will have the advantage of diversity, and has been arranged with intent to make its interest sustaining. There is no admission charge.

The program:

Annual May Procession May 18

The annual May Procession of St. Augustine's parish will take place on Sunday, May 18, weather permitting.

The children of the various sodalities and societies connected with St. Augustine's church and St. Joseph's church, Ballardvale, will take part as usual. Mary Mulcahy has been selected as the May Queen.

The procession will be headed by a platoon of police in charge of Chief Frank N. Smith. The line of march will be over the route followed in former years.

On Sunday, May 11, at the 8:30 o'clock mass, forty-five children will make their first Holy Communion in St. Augustine's church.

To Give Lecture on Recent Trip

Rev. E. V. Bigelow, D.D., pastor of the South church will give an illustrated lecture in the South church vestry Friday evening, May 9, on his recent trip to Europe, Egypt and the Holy Land.

The lecture will be illustrated by stereoscopic pictures. Admission will be free and the public is invited.

Two New Firemen Appointed

Fire Chief Charles F. Emerson has announced the appointment of two new permanent firemen, the appointments dating from Monday, May 5. The two new firemen are Alexander McKenzie, who has served for twelve years as a call man and Timothy J. Madden, a veteran of the world war and a member of the Legion.

The local fire department now has eight permanent men and the chief and with the call men should be able to cope with any serious conflagration.

Woman's Guild Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Woman's Guild of Christ church was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Walker on Main street.

Mrs. Arthur W. Boutwell presided and reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. Mrs. Joseph Rand reported for the united thank offering committee and Miss Alice Jenkins for the church periodical club.

Among the activities of the Guild during the past year were the Country fair, the annual Thanksgiving sale and a bakery sale. Two hundred and five articles of clothing have been made and sent into six mission fields: the House of Mercy, Roxbury; St. John's mission, High Shoals, N. C.; St. Augustine's school, Raleigh, N. C.; St. Matthias' mission, Atlanta, Georgia; St. Stephen's mission, Fort Yukon, Alaska; St. James hospital, Nanking, China.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Arthur W. Boutwell; vice president, Mrs. Charles W. Henry; second vice president, Mrs. W. D. Walker; secretary, Mrs. D. H. Munro; treasurer, Miss Martha Packard; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Charles Warden.

At the close of the business meeting, tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gerard Chapin and Mrs. Arthur Boutwell, assisted by Mrs. Fred McCullom, Mrs. Charles Jewett and Mrs. Henry Miller.

Local Girls Win Honors at Home Beautiful Exhibition

Four girls from the Cochichewick Camp Fire demonstrated bandaging in the Camp Fire booth at the Home Beautiful Exposition, in Boston, Saturday afternoon.

These demonstrations were held on four afternoons during the week, honors being awarded to the three girls doing the best work at each demonstration. The judges were nurses from the Peter Bent Brigham, Massachusetts General and Cambridge hospitals.

Marjorie West was accorded first honor, with a score of 100 per cent; Isabella Bodwell was second, with 99 per cent; Olive Warden third, with 97 per cent; and Emma Stevens a close fourth, with 95 per cent.

Albion Metcalf to Give Recital for Benefit of Bryn Mawr Summer School

For the benefit of Bryn Mawr summer school for women in industry, Albion Metcalf, pianist, of Reading, will give a program on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Thompson.

Mr. Metcalf has made many friends in Andover among music-lovers. The promise of an evening of good music, together with the wide-spread interest in the worthy cause for the benefit of which the recital has been planned, assures the success of the occasion.

County Fruit Meeting to Be Held in Andover

The County Fruit Meeting to be held May 6, at 2:00 p.m., at the farm of George Averill, West Andover, located near the Grange hall, will be an important meeting in more ways than one. County Agent Bertram Tomlinson says that in addition to the field instruction on the art and practice of spraying, fruit growers will consider the advisability of affecting a county fruit organization which will have as its objective the development of the fruit industry in Essex County.

The agitation for a county fruit organization is one of the direct results of the campaign being carried on by the County Extension Service for the production of "apples that can be eaten in the dark." So much interest has been shown at the meetings thus far held that it seemed advisable to take steps to organize the fruit growers so that there will be an official organization looking after the interests of the fruit industry.

A committee consisting of R. N. C. Barnes, Andover; George Barker, North Andover; Daniel Reynolds, Haverhill; Frank N. Rand, Merrimac, and Bertram Tomlinson, Danvers, is perfecting plans for the organization and will be ready to report at the meeting May 6.

When one considers that the value of Essex County's fruit crop is given in the 1920 U. S. Census report as $98,349, and that this amount is only exceeded by Middlesex, Worcester and Plymouth counties, the importance of this proposed fruit organization may well be realized.

Presence of Mind Prevents Serious Fire

Smashing a window in the house next door from which she saw smoke emerging, and giving an alarm over the telephone which she seized from a stand just inside the case, Miss Ronan of 40 Morton street prevented a serious fire at the home of John F. McDonough at 50 Morton street yesterday afternoon.

No one was in the house at the time and the prompt work by Miss Ronan in calling the firemen brought them to the scene with such speed that the fire was extinguished almost before the alarm stopped ringing.

The fire apparently originated in a pile of wood behind a stove in the front room. Aside from a hole burned in a rug the damage was slight.

Tickets will be thirty-five cents. General dancing will be enjoyed after the entertainment. You may refresh yourself with ice cream and candy. The proceeds will be added to the West church vestry fund.

Obituary

GEORGE W. CHANDLER

Another vacancy is caused in the ranks of the Civil War veterans who went to the front from Andover, by the death in Andover, on Thursday, April 24, of George W. Chandler. For the last three years, Mr. Chandler had been living with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Kruder of Avon and it was at her home that he died.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow were held Saturday afternoon in the South church vestry, and burial took place in the family lot in the Old South cemetery.

The bearers were Albert W. Lowe, William A. Allen, Walter H. Coleman, and G. R. Cannon, past masters of St. Matthews lodge, A. F. and A. M. Delegations were present from Gen. Wm. F. Bartlett Post, 99, G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps and Andover Lodge, No. 230, I. O. O. F.

Mr. Chandler was born in Andover February 18, 1842, in the house on Sunset Rock road now occupied by Ralph N. C. Barnes. He received his education at the Scotland District school and also at the red brick schoolhouse which stood near the site of the present Borden gymnasium. He attended Phillips Academy with the Class of 1861.

In April 1861, he enlisted in the first military company which formed in Andover and served as a private in Company H, 1st Heavy Artillery for three years until he was discharged, by expiration of service on July 8, 1864.

In November of 1865 he married Sarah J. Faulkner of North Andover. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler spent a year in or near Chicago, after which they returned to their native town. Of their three children, two are still living, George Chandler of East Moriches, L. I., and Mrs. Kruder of Avon. One daughter, Miss Laura Chandler, died a few years ago.

Mr. Chandler engaged in a teaming and trucking business and for fifteen years conducted a coal business. He also served the town in various capacities, including those of Highway Surveyor, Fire Chief and Chief of Police.

For eighteen years he served as a rural mail carrier on the West Parish route, entering the postal service when this branch was first inaugurated in Andover. He was retired in August, 1920.

He was affiliated with several fraternal organizations, being a member of Andover Lodge of Odd Fellows and having held office as Past Master of the Workmen, Master of the Masonic Lodge and Commander of General William F. Bartlett Post, G. A. R.

SAFELY GUIDED BY INSTINCT

Lower Animals Avoid Danger in a Manner That to Mankind is Remarkable.

The Metropolitan railway in London, England, generally known as the "underground," is infested with rats, and every effort is made to exterminate them. The electric current runs through one of the rails, but the other is free.

An official on the railway, who was setting traps on the line bank, told a newspaper representative that at certain places the rats can be observed, and he had noticed how careful they were to avoid the live rail.

They make their holes along the banks of the railway, and actually within a few inches of the deadly rail.

"I have watched them making their way across the lines from one hole to another," he said, "and noticed that they go unhesitatingly over the ordinary metals, but they never go near the rail through which the current is passing. They will carefully go under it, but will not even touch the wooden rails which are on either side."

Special men are employed to keep the rat population down, and they have noticed this artfulness.

Asked if rats had any special sense which enabled them to detect danger from electrically live metals, a zoologist said that the problem was an interesting one, but obscure.

An official of the Zoological society said that no experiments had been made to his knowledge to test this, but it was known that many animals possessed a faculty for detecting danger which human beings lacked. In this case the extreme sensitiveness of the end of the rat's whisker might be the aid.

In like manner, many cases have been recorded of such highly developed sense in dogs and cats. Most dogs know when a person is in fear of them.

FRATERNAL ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Samuel R. Harris, Mrs. Fred Adams, Mrs. Franklin S. Valentine, Mrs. John Ure, assisted by Alexander Ness, J. Harry Playdon, Henry E. Miller, John Aucterlone, Bertman Stott, Robert Goodall and John Barnett.

The new quarters of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Clan and Auxiliary, Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters on Park street, are modern and complete. The three story structure purchased last December has been remodelled from plans by Perley F. Gilbert, architect and the reconstruction of the third floor where the lodge rooms and other rooms are located has been done by J. E. Pitman, contractor.

About sixty-five members of Garfield Temple, Pythian Sisters attended the roll call and supper held in the Fraternal building Monday evening. A catered supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, the menu consisting of meat pie, mashed potato, green beans, pickles, and olives, rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Following the supper the roll call was held and at this time the visiting officials were presented baskets of flowers. Most Excellent Chief Mrs. Margaret Cilley made the presentation to the Grand Deputy, Mrs. Margaret Leavitt of Haverhill; Past Chief, Mrs. Helen Gouck to the Grand Manager, Mrs. Margaret Hudson of Haverhill and Past Chief Jean MacLeish of the Most Excellent chief of the Andover temple with a gift of a similar nature.

The regular meeting with routine business was held following the roll call.

Garfield Temple 56 Pythian Sisters was instituted ten years ago and is the youngest of the organization occupying the new Fraternal building. Active in organizing the new Temple was Mrs. Thomas B. Flynn who was the first most excellent chief. Mrs. May Hall of Wakefield instituted the temple and installed the first officers. The Pythian Sisters, however, have been a progressive organization and were the first to turn over their quota for the new building.

The past chiefs are Mrs. Thomas B. Flynn, Mrs. George J. York, two terms, Mrs. Avis Sanderson, Miss Helen Poland, Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. Annie Davis, Mrs. Sarah Hilton Long, Miss Jean MacLeish and Mrs. William J. Orr, through her service as mistress of finance. Miss Jean MacLeish was the youngest most excellent chief who ever held the office in Massachusetts and probably in the country.

The officers are: Mrs. George Cilley, most excellent chief; Mrs. Thos. Neal, most excellent senior; Mrs. Edward Roby, most excellent junior; Miss Jean MacLeish, past chief; Miss Agnes Thib, manager; Mrs. Fred Adams, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Frank Poland, mistress of finance; Mrs. John Henderson, inside guard; Mrs. John True, outside guard; Mrs. Kerr Sparks, pianist.

The committee in charge of the anniversary was Mrs. John True, chairman, Mrs. Harry Gouck, P. C., Mrs. Edward Roby, Mrs. Sarah Hilton Long, P. C., Miss Ethel Hilton, Edward Roby and Harry Gouck.

The first initiation held by Andover Lodge of Odd Fellows in their new hall took place on Wednesday evening with thirty Past Grand present. Of these, twenty-two assisted in the initiative of five candidates, with William C. Harraden of North Andover, the first noble grand, in the chair and Frank M. Smith as his right supporter.

At the first initiation of Andover lodge nearly 30 years ago in G. A. R. hall, Essex street, William C. Harraden was vice grand and Frank M. Smith, conductor. At the first initiation in Odd Fellows hall in the Musgrave building, William C. Harraden was noble grand and Frank M. Smith again conductor. At the first initiation in the new Fraternal building Wednesday night William C. Harraden, was again noble grand and Frank M. Smith his right supporter. This is an unusual record stretching as it does over almost thirty years.

The following past grands with the date on which they were elected to the past grands chair, conferred the degree:

William C. Harraden, N. G., June 24, 1885; A. Lincoln Coates, V. G. June 24, 1901; George D. Millett, warden, Dec. 28, 1897; Benjamin D. Hibbert, conductor, Dec. 18, 1911; David M. May, chaplain, June 19, 1898; Ira Buxton, P. G., June 27, 1917; Frank L. Holt, inside guardian, June 25, 1900; Frank M. Smith, R. S. N. G., June 28, 1896; John A. True, R. S. N. G., Dec. 31, 1913; William H. Faulkner, R. S. V. G., Dec. 26, 1906; Walter Buxton, L. S. V. G., Dec. 28, 1920; Horace C. Bodwell, R. S. S., Dec. 29, 1904; Fred M. Hill, L. S. S., Dec. 19, 1898; William A. Allen, outside conductor, June 29, 1904; George C. Dunells, Dec. 18, 1907; David C. Leslie, Dec. 27, 1916; Elmer E. Philbrick, Dec. 30, 1919; James H. Hovey, Dec. 30, 1908; shield bearers.

District Deputy Fred McIntosh of North Andover installed Edward Emale as conductor of the lodge during the meeting. It was voted to hold the Odd Fellows' anniversary and Ladies' night on May 14. The next rehearsal of the officers for the initiatory degree will be held next Wednesday evening after the regular meeting, and all officers are urged to attend.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

RETAIN DRESS OF ANCESTORS

Costumes in Yucatan Are Much the Same Now as They Were in the Long Ago.

The modern Yucatan laborer has retained the dress of his ancestor, wearing crude sandals, white flaring trousers, a white jacket with a row of pockets along the bottom seam, and a colored apron wound around his hips and tucked in at the waist. The trousers are made of white duck, while cheaper trousers, work shirts and jackets are made from coarse, unbleached sheeting, locally known as "manta cruda." The apron contains a little more than a yard of cloth, and is made of ticking.

The working women wear white dresses made from such materials as bleached sheeting, cambric and long-cloth, and usually trimmed around the neck, armholes and bottom with stamped flowered strips which are made especially for this trade. White drill and cotton are used for suitings for men's clothing, blue drill principally for suits of railway employees, dock laborers and mechanics, and other articles for purposes similar to those of other countries.

No statistics of the imports of cotton piecegoods are available, but local conditions tend to give it considerable importance and volume. The natives of Yucatan take particular pride in the neatness and cleanliness of their clothing, the extent to which this is carried out being dependent largely on the economic conditions prevailing in the state.

Mrs. Wombat had another cook and the first dinner was a sad affair. The potatoes were soggy, the steak was raw and the odor of scorched soup greeted Mr. Wombat as he entered the front door. He knew this signal of yore, but advanced cheerily.
"How's the new cook?" he asked his wife.
Mrs. Wombat put it all into a very brief sentence.
"She can't cook!"
Nothing, however, could dismay the incorrigible optimist.
"Perhaps we can cure that," he said.

Obituary

MRS. SUSAN E. FLINT

Mrs. Susan E. Flint passed away at her home on Bellevue road, West Andover, on Wednesday afternoon after a short illness. She was born in Wilson, N. Y., eighty-nine years ago, but has made her home in Andover for the last fifty-four years.

Mrs. Flint is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Cora Greenwood of Bellevue road, Andover, and Mrs. Mabel Fernald of Portsmouth, N. H.; by seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the late home Saturday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Burial will be in West Paris cemetery.

Colonial Party

A very pretty Colonial party was held in the Grange hall last Saturday evening. An old-time supper consisting of baked beans, cold roast pork, brown bread, rolls, doughnuts and cheese, gingerbread with whipped cream and coffee was served at six o'clock.

The waitresses were Mrs. Walter Pike, Misses Lena Davis, Frances Terwilliger, Abbie Lewis, Dorothy Williams, Winona Boutwell, and Edith Johnson. They were dressed in quaint costumes with old-fashioned overdresses made of paper.

Pompey Lovejoy, impersonated by Edward Burt, assisted to swell the West church vestry fund by the sale of pop corn and peanuts. Betsy Bobbitt in charge of Miss Ella Holt, parted with the contents of her pockets for the same good cause.

Following the supper, an entertainment was given consisting of a series of tableaux, old-time dances and songs which were in keeping with the spirit of a Colonial party. Winthrop Boutwell as Town Crier announced the various numbers of the program which was as follows:

Tableau—Spirit of '76
Granville Cutler Jr., Malcolm Long, James Carter

Music by Quartet
Mrs. Walter Pike, Mrs. Harry Wright, William B. Corlies, Herbert Merrick

Music by Choir
Tableau—The Minute Man Samuel Boutwell

Music by the Choir
Sketch—Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet Miss Ella Holt and Fred E. Cheever

Song
Dance—Minuet Edith Johnson, Margaret Buchanan, Mildred Hicks, May Valentine

Negro Melodies by the Choir
Tableau—John Alden and Priscilla Sherman Boutwell, Margaret Cutler

Duet—When You and I Were Young Miss Lena Davis and Miss Phoebe Noyes

Tableau—The Cypre's Warning Frances Terwilliger and Mildred Hicks

Song Mrs. Walter Pike
Cake Walk by Pompey Lovejoy and Aunt Jenima E. W. Burt and Mrs. Hubert Mayo

Tableau—Auld Lang Syne Miss Carolyn Burt, Miss Ella Holt, Miss Margaret Buchanan, Fred Cheever, Edward Burt

Song Carolyn Burt
Tableau—Betty Ross and the Flag Winona Boutwell, Margaret Buchanan, Edith Johnson

At the conclusion of the program there was a grand march in which all those who attended in costume took part. Miss Angie Burt received the prize, a paid of candlesticks, awarded to the person wearing the most interesting costume. The judges were Mrs. Clarence Coolidge, Mrs. Frank M. Foster and Mrs. John A. Morrill.

The dance opened with a Virginia Reel and Portland Fancy, O. P. Chase acting as prompter. These numbers were followed by several waltzes, after which the floor was given over to the more modern dances. Music was furnished by Mrs. Kerr Sparks.

The members of the committee in charge of the affair were chairman, Miss Clara A. Putnam, Miss Ella Holt, Mrs. Anna Pad-dock, Mrs. Winthrop Boutwell, Mrs. John A. Morrill, Mrs. Harry A. Wright, Miss Anna Chase, Miss Alice Boutwell and Miss Carolyn Burt.

Obituary

DAVID ANDERSON

David Anderson, twin brother of the late William Anderson, died Thursday afternoon, April 24, at the family home, 12 Cuba street after a long illness. On May 2, 1923, the twin brothers celebrated their seventy-sixth birthday. William died in the fall of the same year and David survived him but six months.

Born in Arbroath, Scotland, they did not emigrate from the land of Burns until they were nearly sixty years of age. Coming to this country, both settled in Andover. David for a time was employed in the factory of the Tyer Rubber company, but later both brothers took up employment in the Marland mills of the M. T. Stevens company. David is survived by two sons, Edwin of Andover, Archibald of Arbroath, Scotland; two daughters, Elizabeth and Agnes of Arbroath, Scotland, and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Arthur S. Whellock were held Saturday afternoon. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

The bearers were Alexander Anderson, William Anderson, Claude Nicoli, Alexander Welsh, Daniel London and William Stirling.

Not a Silver Lining.

Just before the children, Mattie, Sadie, Sam and Lint, were to go away to school, their uncle, who was paying their tuition, called them to him. Visions of a bountiful allowance danced before the eyes of the young scholars, especially the boys.

They walked the hot and dusty mile, up hill, to their uncle's house. Dutifully they listened to a lecture of "do's" and "don'ts." Finally uncle reached into his "money" pocket.

He pulled out some stamps. To each child he gave enough stamps to last all term. The boys looked chagrined. The girls giggled at the boys. All thanked him and trudged the mile to their home.

Local Lodge Represented at Fair

Ballardvale lodge, No. 105, I. O. G. T., was represented at the District lodge fair, Methuen, Saturday, by a miscellaneous booth which was in charge of Mrs. Daniel H. Poor. The booth was contributed to by many local people and proved to be the most successful financially.

The object of the fair was to pay the expenses of the two-day session of the Massachusetts Grand lodge, which will meet in Haverhill in September. Representatives were present from Lowell, Lawrence, Methuen, Haverhill, Newburyport and Ballardvale.

A meeting of the Swana club was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Schoeder, Tewkesbury street, with twelve members present.

The object of the meeting was to decide on the disposal of a fund in the club's treasury amounting to $35, the proceeds of an entertainment given by the society in Bradlee hall in 1922.

It was voted that the money be used to purchase girls' books for the Ballardvale branch of the Memorial library.

Men's Brotherhood Meets

The weekly meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church was held in the vestry Monday evening. A business session was held during which the following officers were elected for the next six months: President, William Bancroft; vice president, Samuel Moody; secretary, Harold Wells; treasurer, George Brown. Following the business a social hour was enjoyed.

It was voted that the money be used to purchase girls' books for the Ballardvale branch of the Memorial library.

Lodge Elects Officers

The regular meeting of Ballardvale lodge, No. 105, I. O. G. T., was held in Good Templar hall Monday evening with Chief Templar Mrs. Frances Benson in the chair.

A detailed report of the District lodge fair was given by Mrs. D. H. Poor. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chief Templar, Mrs. Leona Hammond; vice templar, Mrs. Alfred Lundgren; financial secretary, Miss Bella Benson; treasurer, Daniel H. Poor; chaplain, Mrs. D. H. Poor; marshal, Raymond Keating; deputy marshal, Frances Benson; register, Margaret Benson; past chief templar, Mrs. Frances Benson. Lodge Deputy Benjamin Robinson of Methuen will install the newly elected officers on next Monday evening. A delegation from Brook lodge will be present. Refreshments will be served and all Good Templars will be welcome.

Ladies' Night at South Church Men's Club

An evening of music and readings with the ladies of the parish as their guests brought to a close the successful season of the South church men's club.

The entertainers were Miss Anna Eichorn of Allston, violinist, and Edwin Whitney, dramatic reader, each an artist of ability. Miss Eichorn played for her first number the whole of the Rondo Capriccioso by Saint Saens, and for her second group, the Old Refrain from Kreisler and the final movement of Mendelssohn's Concerto. The remarkably sympathetic accompaniments on the piano played by Mrs. Cora Grooch Books contributed to a very finished performance.

Mr. Whitney, as an impersonator, easily swayed his audience from laughter to tears. "The Comforts of Travel" as described by Mr. Dooley, after his first experience on a sleeping car was most entertaining. The impersonator was perfect not only with his dialogue but every gesture and facial expression was that of the Irishman. Mr. Whitney was equally successful with "The Man with a Country—And Proud of It," combining an amusing narrative of an unusual ocean voyage, the moving account of an American's homesickness in a far country on Thanksgiving day and a heart-stirring word picture of his rejoicing at the sight of the stars and stripes which meant friends and good cheer on the holiday.

At the close of the program, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Preceding the entertainment, a short business meeting was held with Arthur W. Bassett presiding. The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the club to be in a flourishing condition. There have been fifty-two new members added during the year, thirty-six of whom were from Shawshen, making a total membership of 226.

The report of the nominating committee was given by Frank L. Brigham and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Joseph W. Kimball; vice president, J. S. Mercer; second vice president, H. Allison Morse; secretary, Louis Fingers; treasurer, Louis M. Huntress; executive committee, Henry A. Bodwell, John A. Arnold, Chester W. Holland; chairman of the social committee, V. D. Harrington.

Observe Past Masters' Night

EDITORIAL

There is no doubt of the fact that we have, as a Nation, spent a great many dollars for road miles which we have never seen, and never will see. Building the wrong kind of roads, building roads in the wrong locations, improving roads which should be relocated, allowing roads to be built by those who know little or nothing of the work, are a few of the means we have employed to spend an enormous amount of money for comparatively little improved road.

There is less and less of this wasteful policy of road building every year, of course. We learn rapidly by experience, we Americans, although we are slow to learn, as masses, the one fact which every bunco stealer, grafter, dishonest politician, and spellbinder knows as his gospel, the fact that we are the most easily gullible and cheatable people on earth. But even this fact is beginning to permeate our somewhat opinionated minds, and wherever it finds lodgment we are commencing to ask the powers that spend out money for roads, for what are they spending it, to whom are they entrusting the purchase of materials for the construction of the road, and by whose authority is it going to run from A to B via C, and not from A to X via Y?

In terms of intelligence, we have obtained in roads just what we paid for. Now that we are investing some real interest and intelligence, as well as cash, we will get some real roads.

As the Government has more money and more intelligence in its spending on great projects than any individual or group of individuals can possibly have, it seems natural and logical that road building, by the Government, for the people, is the next step.

Next step, or next step but one or two, it is obvious that when the United States does build its national highways, it will as effectively eliminate graft and inefficiency as it did in the construction of our national waterway, the Panama Canal.

ADVERTISING SIGNS TO GO FROM ROADS

Automobile Clubs and Advertisers Cooperate

That the advertising sign at the side of the road may prove a detriment to the thing advertised instead of promoting sales, is being more and more recognized by large users of bill-board space. It is being brought home to advertisers that road users hotly resent the blatant sign covering up a beautiful vista or profaning a lovely landscape.

Cooperation in sign removal has had unexpected impetus from the Standard Oil Co., on the Pacific Coast, which has decided to eliminate certain objectionable signs from the highways.

"Convinced that highway advertising signs detract from the natural beauty of the great routes of travel of the Pacific Coast," says an official of Standard Oil, "this company has decided that it will erect no more such signs and that it will immediately remove all of its signs of this nature now standing. Hereafter the company will confine the use of signs to commercial locations. This company was among the first of the oil concerns to engage in this form of advertising and is now glad to be the first to discontinue it."

Nearly 1,200 large, round permanent signs in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, and Arizona are consigned to the ax by a general order.

Ute Pass, near Colorado Springs, has for long been defaced with a large number of signs. Recently the Colorado Automobile Club, which is deeply interested in the work of beautifying highways, removed more than one thousand signs from the pass. At the same time the club ordered ten thousand trees to be planted in nurseries and later used to embellish the roads leading to Colorado Springs.

Among the many large bill-board users in the East who have declared their intention to aid in the beautifying of highways by the elimination of signs, are such well-known persons as Kelly Springfield Tire Co., Pillsbury Flour Mills Co., Washburn-Crosby Co., Champion Spark Plug Co., B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., Sun Oil Co., Hood Rubber Co., Ajax Rubber Co., Ward Baking Co., Dodge Brothers, Gull Kefauver Co., Texas Co., and the Fleischmann Co.

DAY OF NARROW ROAD HAS NOW GONE BY

Importance of Ample Right of Way for Widening

Don't build the road narrow. But however it is built, have a right of way ample enough to provide for widening in the future. On these two hang all the law and the profits of modern road building!

An expensive fault of the narrow road is the concentration of traffic. Wheels moving constantly over the same places produce parallel lines of excessive wear. To prevent rapid disintegration of a single track road a heavier foundation and surface is needed than is required for a wider road.

Substantial shoulders at the sides on which the passing traffic may turn out are also necessary, as otherwise the wheels of vehicles turning out to pass will quickly wear ruts at the edges. In these water collects, to penetrate beneath the foundation, with disastrous results. A narrow road with soft earth shoulders is dangerous to motor traffic in slippery weather.

To build the heavier foundation and surface needed to bear the concentration of traffic on a narrow road, and the substantial shoulders at the sides, requires as much money as to build a wider road. On a wide road, traffic is scattered, and wear is distributed. With a paved surface sufficiently wide for two lines of rapidly moving vehicles to pass in safety, the necessity for artificial shoulders is eliminated. To build a narrow road, thin and without shoulders, means a loss of the entire investment in a comparatively short time.

A narrow right of way requires drainage ditches close to the travel. With no shoulder between paved surface and ditch the chances of serious accident are largely increased. All drainage ditches tend to become deeper, so that the danger to traffic becomes constantly greater.

Before any program for beautification of highways is undertaken, some assurance that the rights of way are wide enough to accommodate future traffic should be had.

Motor vehicle traffic will increase as the mileage of hard roads increases. A general extension in the width of wearing surfaces will call for wider rights of way. To obtain wider rights of way now means an ultimate saving of a large sum of money and will prevent many future difficulties.

ROAD SMALL TALK

Do you know that it costs two and a half cents a mile more to run a Ford on a poor road than on a good one? The Kenton Highway Department experimented with two fleets of Fords, one on good, one on poor roads, and found the mileage cost was 4.22 cents on good roads and 6.72 on poor roads. The figures were based on fuel and oil, tires and repairs, but not depreciation. The repair cost was exactly double on the cars running on poor roads.

There is a plan to plant "Wilson Oaks" along some great North Carolina highways, sponsored by the American Legion. Dogwood is to be planted between the trees to make the memorial highways things of beauty as well as utility.

Cars skid more on a dry surface than a wet one, if the wet one is clean. Brake tests in the Capital City showed that the gummy, semiwet asphalt was the dangerous surface, that the dry surface was only partly skid-proof, but that the wet asphalt when entirely clean of dust was truly nonskid.

The Department of Agriculture has perfected a device to be attached to a car, by which its driver may measure the size of fields along the road without the painful and inaccurate method of computation from the usual odometer.

Service, Speed and Satisfaction Watch-words of Arrow Cleansing Company

Owing to the large increase of business, the Arrow Dyeing and Cleansing plant in Lawrence has been enlarged and now has a new 100x30 ft., building constructed of brick, two stories high. Parcel post packages flow in from all points and it was deemed wise to make the new addition so that both local and outside business can be taken care of properly. Service, speed and satisfaction are the three magic words that make the wheels of the Arrow shop grind with production. Four motor trucks are kept busy all day and half the night, making deliveries to homes in the vicinity. The staff of sixty-two people under the employ of the company, are a group of finished experts in their line of work. Each plays a prominent part in serving the public, each has his little part to act in the drama which each looks with pride when the work is finished on the beautifully clean garments. All machinery in the Arrow plant is of the latest and most modern type. Each machine is automatically equipped to prevent explosions and in this way protects both the customer's property and the workers. A special machine for the cleansing of gloves is another feature of the Lawrence plant. About six pounds of dirt is extracted from every 275 garments that find their way into the plant. It is indeed remarkable that machines can be made to take such a large amount of dirt out of clothes and make them look just like new, and even more remarkable when the fact is known that it can be done in a comparatively short time, at a low expense and without any possible injury to the garment. In fact, it increases the life of the clothes rather than takes it away, making in the end nothing but a profit for the wearer rather than an expense. We all know the old proverb of "A stitch in time saves nine," so it is with Arrow cleansing. "A good cleaning in time will save many a dime."

Arrow cleansing will benefit and not harm a fabric. It will make the garment wear longer and stay new. Proper cleansing does this, hence it is worth more to the customer, indeed it is the only kind of cleansing that should be done and is the only kind that the Arrow people will do. When a garment has gone through the cleansing process, the workers know that it is clean without looking at it, but every garment is carefully inspected and besides this, all minor defects are repaired without charge. When you get a suit from the Arrow shop, you can shut your eyes, put it on and know that it is right.

Nothing quicker than a telephone, nothing more convenient than a delivery car, the Arrow system has both these services for the local public. Their service is at your command for cleansing, pressing or repairing overcoats, ties, silk shirts, etc. Your clothes are entitled to a good cleansing and proper pressing. You are expected to look neat and clean in your office, during your social hours, at home and on the street. To do this, you must have your clothes expertly groomed and taken care of. The Arrow people can do this little thing for you at a very low cost and in a very short time.

ESSEX COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL NOTES

The Floriculture Division is busy making the grounds attractive for the coming summer. A small grove of thirty American larches has been set out just west of the new greenhouse site. These trees will serve as a windbreak as well as beautifying this part of the school grounds. About fifty maples and elms have been set out along the service road near the new poultry plant and a large area has been prepared near the Homemaking Building for the setting out of plants and shrubs. Several beds have been made ready to receive flowering plants as soon as the weather permits.

Plants are now being transferred from the leased greenhouse to the frames. A fourteen-inch frame is completely filled with over thirty varieties of flowers, some of which are already in bloom.

Arthur E. Urquhart, now in charge of the division of floriculture, has employed four students for the summer. They are Stuart Cogswell of Essex, Harry Tucker and Aaron Porter of Beverly, and Franklin Watson of Topsfield. These students will receive expert instruction in practical floriculture from Mr. Urquhart besides a fair remuneration for their work.

Carlton M. Stearns of Danvers, Instructor in Vegetable Gardening, is at the Beverly Hospital, suffering from a badly cut arm and hand received while at work at the school garden. Mr. Stearns, while covering some of the frames, accidentally fell through one of the sash and was severely cut. He was given first aid by Dr. Buck of Danvers and then taken to the hospital. His many friends at the School wish for him a speedy recovery.

Homemaking Department

The Homemaking Department closed on April 25 for a vacation of one week. Classes in this department will be resumed on Monday, May 5, and will continue to the end of June.

On Tuesday, May 6, the Junior and High School special classes will visit the Lowell Textile School. This trip is a part of the Textile Course and the students will receive instruction in spinning and weaving from an instructor of the Textile school.

Methuen Track Meet

Methuen High defeated Essex Aggie in an outdoor track meet held in Methuen, on Saturday, April 26. Captain Whittier was able to enter only six men, all but one scoring points for Aggie. Andrew Coukos of Lynn broke the School record in the shot-put with a throw of 36 ft 11-2 inches. Other point winners were George Sargent, first in mile run, third in Half Mile; Herbert Whittier, second in mile run, second in half mile; Andrew Coukos, first in shot-put, third in high jump; Benjamin Austin, third in quarter mile; Harry Tucker, third in 220-yard dash. Aggie scored a total of 19 1/2 points as against Methuen's 52 1/2.

County Agent Activities

Judging from the telephone calls and letters received by County Agent Bertram Tomlinson, apple-growers are making a real effort this year to boost the quality of fruit produced in Essex County. This interest has only to be maintained for a period of two years when the results will be evident by the better local fruit carried by the fruit dealers, who at present prefer to carry western-grown apples because there is less loss due to better grading and packing by the western grower.

The seasonal meetings, where demonstrations of one kind or another are given, have done much to keep the campaign for "growing apples that can be eaten in the dark" a live issue.

The next important seasonal meeting will be on the farm of George Averill, West Andover, May 6, at 2 p.m., where there will be a demonstration given on spraying. This meeting will differ in some respects from the previous spraying meeting ever held in the county as an expert from the Massachusetts Agricultural College will be present who will not only tell and demonstrate how to spray, but he will also show how one may measure the nozzle capacity of his spraying outfit so as to get the best results.

Many growers have good spraying equipment, but fail to get the "misty" spray on account of a wrong balance between nozzle capacity and pressure.

Time will not permit of a similar demonstration in all parts of the county this year but the automobiles and good roads make Mr. Averill's farm easily accessible to all fruit growers. Everyone is invited to be present.

Brush Fire at Den Rock

About four o'clock Sunday afternoon the fire department was called to a brush fire near the Andover-Lawrence line in the vicinity of Den Rock. The blaze first started on the Andover side and Andover firemen battled it until they were faced with the problem of fighting a blaze that extended over several miles of brush and trees and was rapidly spreading.

The flames crossed the Lawrence line at nine o'clock Sunday night and soon after that time apparatus and crews from that city were on the scene. It was not until after eleven o'clock that the fire officials pronounced the blaze out.

The fire broke out anew on Monday, shortly after nine o'clock and a crew dispatched to the scene. After a battle of several hours the last vestige of flame was stamped out at six o'clock and after a final wet-down the apparatus returned to the station. The extent of the blackened fields is not known but it is believed that between fifty and seventy-five acres have been cleared of the low brush.

Dance at Manor Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening there will be a buffet supper dance at the Shawsheen Manor and plans have been made to make the affair an enjoyable one.

The dance will take place in the spacious main dining-room, which affords ample room for such an affair, and will continue from 8 o'clock to twelve. During the evening a buffet supper will be served. Good music will be provided and a pleasant evening is assured.

Trieze Club

The Trieze club met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Jowett, Union street, Tuesday night. Whist was played; the first prize was won by Mrs. Charles Flanagan, consolation, Miss Bertha Waters. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Thomas Taylor.

Community Church Service

Dr. George N. Spencer, secretary of the Massachusetts Bible Society of Boston preached the sermon Sunday evening at the Shawsheen Community Church Service in Balmoral hall. His text was taken from St. Mark, 2: 27, "The Sabbath was Made for Man, Not Man for the Sabbath."

Special music was provided by the Christ church choir led by Gordon S. Brown. Solos were sung by George Knipe who sang "Comfort Ye" by Handel, and Frederick Spjostrom rendered "Every Valley," by Handel.

Rev. George F. Beecher of the First Baptist Church, Lawrence, will speak next Sunday evening and music will be provided by the regular choir. Leland Gates of Andover will be the soloist.

Tomorrow evening the formation of a local chapter of the X. B. K. will take place under the direction of Dr. Nathaniel Stowers.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts held their weekly meeting at the Boy's club Wednesday evening. The squad formation was practiced and drill was held. Miss Mary Williams was elected treasurer and it was voted to pay five cents a week into the treasury. A hike will be held this afternoon to West Andover.

Bowling Green Club to Meet

A meeting of the Shawsheen Bowling Green club will be held Monday evening in the Boy's club on Haverhill street at 7.30. All members and those who intend becoming members are urged to be present.

Annual Meeting of Women's Club

The Shawsheen Village Women's club will hold its annual meeting Monday evening, May 5, at a quarter before eight o'clock in Balmoral hall. The president, Mrs. George H. Winslow will preside. The annual election of officers will take place. Amendments relative to changing certain articles in the Constitution will be submitted to be voted on.

Shawsheen Pupils to Take Part

This evening in the Winter Garden at Lawrence, Miss Teresa V. Sheridan, one of the most prominent dancing teachers in the vicinity, will present her pupils in her third annual dancing recital and reception. Besides the many classes conducted in Lawrence and Perry, N. H., Miss Sheridan has during the past year held classes in Shawsheen Village and has met with unlimited success. The pupils of the Shawsheen classes will take a prominent part in the recital this evening and many of them will appear in solo dances.

"THE RAM'S GAMBOLE"

Musical Revue and Minstrel Show Successfully Presented by Employees of American Woolen Company

"The Ram's Gambole" a musical revue in two acts, eight scenes, was presented by the administrative building employees of the American Woolen Company Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Colonial Theatre, Lawrence before capacity audiences. The affair, which was one of the most enjoyable ever witnessed at the Colonial theatre, was produced under the direction of Edward F. Whitton with Frank A. Baldwin as stage manager.

The stage settings were elaborate and novel and the music, dancing and jokes won much applause.

The first act, consisting of seven scenes followed the lines of the usual revue and the second a cabaret minstrel show with the Strand Roof Garden as a setting, the interlocutor acting as toastmaster and the colored waiters as end men.

Among the hits of the show was the three-piano act set in the Music Studio of Chickering & Sons with Les Bottomley, Bill Allison and Ed. Whitton at the pianos. The toe and ballet dancing of little Miss Burns of Lawrence and the singing of John Hill were highly appreciated. Miss Gladys Hey and Neil MacLellan in "Say It With a Ukulele" made a decided hit.

The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the Shawsheen Athletic Association.

The children of the Richardson school have been enjoying the annual spring vacation during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Bailey have moved to 33 Balmoral street. Mr. Bailey is associated with the Consolidated Textile Corporation.

Mrs. Charles J. Bailey of York street is a Patroness for the dancing party to be given tomorrow evening by Miss Agnes Dugan at the November Club.

Eugene Tolman of the Shawsheen Manor, and a party of friends, enjoyed a very pleasant and successful fishing trip at Lake Winnepesaukee over the week-end.

Miss Bernice M. Fielding of West Somerville, spent the week with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Miller on Poor street, who is recovering from a severe fall.

Big Soccer Game to be Played Saturday

The big soccer game for Saturday will be that between the pick of the Industrial League vs. the pick of the Boston League at Balmoral Field.

This will be the first game of a series of two; the second game will be played in Boston. This series is for the benefit of the two leagues. After all expenses have been paid the net profits will be equally divided between the two organizations.

The teams have been selected and a good game is in store for the fans this week-end. The kickoff will be at 3:00 p.m.

Meet Tonight

The Shawsheen Sunday school Teachers' Association will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dilley, 41 Enmore street at 8 o'clock. Subjects pertaining to the Sunday school will be discussed and all teachers are requested to be present.

Returned from Trip to Washington

Mrs. James C. Ramsey of William street has returned from a trip to Washington as delegate to the D. A. R. Congress. Mrs. Ramsey had the pleasure of having tea at the White House with President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge and Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, President General of the D. A. R. and also Mrs. Mondell, President of the Children of the American Revolution.

ABILITY TO SAY "I SAW IT"

Makes Ticketholder at Public Spectacle Get Idea That He Had His Money's Worth.

Questions from Shakespeare and the Bible, analogies drawn from the fall of Rome, and accusations of "loose thinking" are all powerful weapons in an argument, but the most effective is the stout assertion: "I saw it with my own eyes."

This explains why many spectators who have paid substantial sums to see a somewhat disappointing spectacle, such as a recent fight in Jersey City, and go to bed chagrined, come to be here before the following noon that they have had their money's worth. For theirs is the thrill of speaking with authority, says the New York Sun and Globe. Instead of being brusquely contradicted after each statement, they are listened to with respect and are freely quoted and appealed to by disputants who have not paid for the title of "eyewitness." Probably at the next event there will be many buying tickets with the resolve that "this time if that dub Jones tries to tell me what happened, I'll tell him what I saw, and let him know where to get off."

SAW METEORITE AS IT FELL

English Field Laborer Within Fifteen Yards of Projectile—Various Minerals in Its Composition.

The British museum recently received a very interesting gift in the form of a meteorite which fell not long ago near Saffron Waldon, in Essex.

About one o'clock in the afternoon a laborer in a field at Ashdon heard a hissing sound, which he took to be the noise of an airplane. Looking up, he was astonished to see, not a plane, but a projectile rushing to the earth. It struck the ground about fifteen yards away, throwing up the soil all round like water.

The man was so much alarmed that he hurried away, but a day or two later returned to the spot with another man and dug out a meteorite, which was found at a depth of two feet.

It weighs about three pounds, and is five inches long and four inches wide, with a thickness of three inches. The stone is composed of various minerals and has in it many small particles of iron.

It is an extremely rare occurrence for anyone to see a meteorite actually fall to earth, only fifteen such instances being recorded in the British Isles.

NEITHER SIDE WINS

Shawsheen and Arlington Play Tie Game For Benefit of Scottish Relief Fund—Score 4 to 4

For the benefit of the Scottish Gaelic relief fund the Shawsheen and Arlington teams battled for ninety minutes in a hard contested game on Saturday at Balmoral field which ended in a tie score of four goals each.

Arlington won the toss and decided to kick towards the Andover goal. Shawsheen was the first to attack, and after some nice work by Thomson, Corrigan headed the cross by McDermott into Torrence's hands. Parker and Churchill by nice work carried the play to the Shawsheen goal, and Shawsheen was penalized just outside the area. Arlington continued to force the pace, and a nice dribble and center by Quinn was cleared by Thomson. Watson put Corrigan in possession and the latter paved the way for Smith to shoot, but he was away wide of the goal.

Despite the good defensive work by Shawsheen Arlington was rewarded when Cox sent out to Mitchell and from the latter's cross Parker headed to goal for Churchill to smash the ball into the corner of the net, with Murdoch helpless.

Shawsheen attacked hard after this and Smith was at fault when well placed by Corrigan. Cunningham was prominent with a dandy center which Corrigan headed just outside the post. Omerod put out to Quinn and the winger nicely tricked Whitehead and his center saw Churchill completely miss and Mitchell put over the cross bar with only the goalie to beat.

The left winger, however, was rewarded a few minutes later when he crowned a splendid effort by a shot that found the far corner of the net and Arlington was two goals up. Shawsheen now put more pep into its play, and Bushnell, after tricking several opponents, put across a perfect center for Smith to bang into the net, and half-time arrived with the Arlington team two goals, Shawsheen one.

The second half was hotly contested. Corrigan put his side on equal terms with a good goal and some exciting play followed. Thomson was penalized when he made a back for Churchill, and Parker put his side ahead again from the ensuing penalty kick. Mitchell made a number four a few minutes later.

Corrigan and Smith beat Patterson with smashing shots, and time was eventually called with a drawn game of four goals each, a satisfactory result.

Ford Takes Important Conservation Step

By methods, new to large-scale lumbering and wood-working, the Ford Motor Company has called a new wood-sawing system which has demonstrated savings of from 35 to 50 per cent in the cutting of fine hardwood for automobile body parts by saving them direct from the unedged planks as they come from the log. This is an achievement in wood conservation as important as the generation has produced. The system is already on a production basis at the saw mills and wood-working plants of the Ford Motor Company at Iron Mountain, L'Anse and River Rouge.

In the past, body parts have been made out of kiln dried boards, which were sawn to uniform size and grade. Much of the youngest and best wood was wasted in this process, and in cases where the log was curved or irregularly shaped, the scrap often exceeded the merchantable timber obtained.

The Ford system is absurdly simple. Planks with the bark left on are cut from a log in parallel planes varying according to the shape of the log. These are sent to "layout tables" where patterns for various parts are marked out until the plank is completely covered with patterns right up to the bark. Any irregularities, such as the swell at the butt, are taken advantage of in laying out curved or irregular parts. Instead of trimming off a large piece to avoid a knot or check, the layout men simply go around it. This method permits the utilization of nearly all the wood, the scrap being extremely small. The various parts are then cut out with a high speed saw.

Under conventional methods the proportion of board feet in body parts by actual measurement to the wood content of the entire tree is distressingly low. One-third of the tree (the limbs and top) is wasted before the log gets to the mill. Only 55 to 60 percent of the log is actually converted into body parts.

A sample tree was cut up into body parts under the new method and the results compared with the amount of parts which the old method of edging and sawing would have given. The results were so startling that the system was put into effect at the various Ford plants as soon as possible.

The tree gave two irregularly shaped logs which scaled 238 board feet. There were also a number of branches and the top. The best use that could be found for these under conventional lumbering methods would be to send them through the wood distillation plant. Instead they were sawed up and marked for parts sawing.

After the logs had been sawed by the Ford method and the patterns laid out, the planks were measured up according to the boards which could be obtained under the old edging and trimming method and the number of available parts in each computed. All parts were reduced to board feet in actual lumber content. The edging and trimming method gave 127 feet of body parts. Under the Ford system the same plants yielded 204 board feet, a gain of 77 board feet or 32 per cent. The limbs and top, hitherto considered worthless except for distillation or fuel, gave 170 board feet additional making a total of 368 b and feet of parts as against the 127 board feet obtainable under the old method.

From now on all hardwood limbs and tops not under four inches in diameter will be brought to the Ford mills. Another saving possible under the new system is the logging operations. Much timber has been sacrificed in an effort to get straight logs of standard length. Trees have been cut off at a height of from two to three feet in order to avoid the swell at the butt. They now may be sawn six inches from the ground. It is no longer necessary to avoid the crotch of a tree. The shape of the planks is of no consequence.

The body parts produced under this method are superior to those sawn out of edged and trimmed boards as the grain may be followed more advantageously. This is especially true of curved parts, a large number of which are found in body construction. Much of the youngest and best wood in the tree was wasted under the edging method, but this is now completely saved. Not only are more parts obtainable from a tree but better parts as well.

This practice of cutting the parts to rough shape while the wood is still green has also simplified the whole process of kiln drying, reducing the shrinkage to a noticeable degree and shortening the time required by approximately ten days. The old-time lumberman a wood-worker who freely predicted that the new system would break down at the kilns were rather chagrined to find that the parts came through with less warping and checking than the boards from which parts were formerly sawed.

It has been estimated that this new system will make the Ford forests last one-third longer, possibly indefinitely if proper methods of reforestation are followed. A young and vigorous growth of timber is constantly coming up and these trees will not have to reach full maturity before they become available for body parts manufacture.

In the interests of forest conservation the Ford Motor Company makes public this new method, and it is hoped that other companies will take advantage of the economies offered. It would be a conservation measure of national importance if saw mill operators instead of sawing boards would saw complete parts or dimensional stock. Automobile body companies, furniture factories and other wood working industries could have their parts made right at the mill, thus making an enormous saving in lumber, in addition to which they would profit by lower freight rates. The general scheme of the system is universal in its application.

To the Ford Motor Company it has been found unusually profitable because the company controls every step in the manufacture of body parts from the standing timber to the assembly line. Here are four industries usually separate and distinct: (1) Logging, (2) Saw Mills, (3) Dry Kilns, and (4) Body Shop, to which may be added (5) the Wood Distillation plant at Iron Mountain, Mich. They are all united under one management with but one end in view. As the company's timber requirements have already reached one million board feet a day the possible savings under this new system may be estimated at several hundred thousand feet daily. But more important still, it appears to have insured a permanent supply of wooden body parts at a time when the disappearing hardwood forests were a matter of public concern.
